

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

MALAY-SINO CHEMICAL INDUSTRIES SDN BHD, LAHAT

Vacancy: Shift Process Engineer

1. Job Scope

- Supervise the daily activities of shift operators in the operations in assigned shift work schedule by ensuring optimum individual productivity and timeliness, quantity and quality of work are in accordance with established targets.
- Assist the plant management in providing technical, administrative, coordinative and management support in leading, planning, coordinating and controlling the overall plant activities to minimize manufacturing costs and maximize output.
- Ensure output are maintained at acceptable quality standard and manpower, equipment, facilities, materials, capital and other resources are utilized in the most optimum manner.
- Ensure all process operations are operated in accordance with established operating specification and parameters and in a productive, efficient, safe and healthy manner.
- Ensure all operational and equipment troubles and abnormalities and manpower and people-related issues are resolved in a prompt and effective manner.
- Ensure all plant machinery, equipment and facilities are promptly repaired and maintained in optimal and efficient operational conditions.
- Ensure regular housekeeping and proper arrangement of equipment and materials in the workplace.

2. Job Requirements

- Degree in Chemical Engineering or related discipline.
- Must have 2 years of working experience in a manufacturing environment.
- Good presentation and communication skills.
- Good problem solving and analytical skills
- A strong team player with good planning and interpersonal skills
- Good command in both spoken and written English and Bahasa Malaysia
- Applicant must be willing to work in Lahat, Ipoh, Perak